SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 3 years.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and two periodic drug tests thereafter.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions in this judgment.

STANDARD CONDITIONS

- 1) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) The defendant shall report to the probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) The defendant shall support his or her dependants and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court; and
- 13) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant will be deported, but if for some reason he is not deported and remains in this country or returns to this country, he shall be on supervised release. If for some unexpected reason he is not deported and is allowed to remain in this country, he shall report to the probation office to which he is released within 72 hours of release. If he is deported, as now expected, he should not come back into the United States without lawful permission, but if he does come back into the United States, whether legally or illegally, he shall report in person to the probation office in the district in which he finds himself within 72 hours of re-entry. If and when supervised release commences, the following conditions shall apply:

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by the court, and shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to a drug test within 15 days of release on supervised release and 2 periodic drug tests thereafter, and shall comply with the following additional condition(s):

- 1) The defendant shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons and shall not be present in a vehicle where the defendant knows any firearm or ammunition is present.
- 2) Unless directed in writing otherwise, the defendant shall check his voicemail and/or answering machine on a daily basis to determine if any instructions were left by the probation officer. The defendant shall follow all such instructions including but not limited to drug testing.
- 3) The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse program that includes treatment and testing, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay for part or all of the cost of treatment, in an amount not to exceed the total cost of urinalysis and counseling. The defendant shall adhere to co-payment schedule as determined by the probation officer.
- 4) The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any financial information, including tax returns, and shall authorize the probation officer to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.
- 5) The defendant shall make an application to register as a drug offender pursuant to state law.
- 6) The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or any property under his control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
- 7) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
